Now ready, Gratis (or post free for 2 penny stamps),
NEW EDITION, CORRECTED TO MARCH, 1850,
Novello's Catalogue No. 2, at the Reduced Prices, of SACRED MUSIC WITH ENGLISH WORDS, containing Services according to the use of the United Church of England and Ireland, Anthems, Hymns, Sacred Songs, Solo Hymns; Sacred Duets, Trios, Quartets, and Choruses; Psalmody, and Collections of Sacred Music.

*** This will be found to contain a list of Anthems and Services by all the principal English Church Composers. The majority of them are printed not only in Vocal score with a separate Accompaniment for the Organ, but also in separate Vocal parts. For the engraving, a large character has been used, both for the music and words, to compensate for the imperfect light in many churches and cathedrals, and the utmost attention has been made to render the copies as correct as possible.

Thalbergarian Exercises, or the Pianist's Desiderata. A new edition, price 3s. 6d.; consisting of 100 Exercises, on a novel plan, with a Plate showing the exact position in which the hands should be held; which, being used with any instruction book, will be found of incalculable advantage at the commencement, and equally useful to pupils far advanced, in facilitating their progress.

London: Messrs. Cocks & Co.; R. Addison & Co.; Lee & Coxhead; Coventry & Co.; Metzler & Co.; and Z. T. Purday, Holborn.

*** Decidedly the most useful Exercises ever published to produce equal strength in all the fingers; ingeniously contrived so as to give the same amount of work to the third and fourth fingers, with the thumbs, as to the others, and, as a consequence, to render all alike flexible and independent; eminently calculated to correct and remove all bad habits, and to ensure a graceful position of the hands; they will be found a valuable acquisition to all teachers, and the progress of their pupils greatly facilitated by their use.

N.B.—Those Professors and Teachers who may not yet have seen the work, may still have one copy sent as a specimen, post free, by enclosing eighteen postage stamps to E. Frost, Musical Repository, 78, High-street, Oxford.

NOVELLO'S FOLIO EDITIONS OF ORATORIOS.

Handel's "Messiah," price 10s.; "Judas Maccabæus," price 15s.; "Israel in Egypt," price 15s.; "Dettingen Te Deum," price 5s.; and Haydn's "Creation," price 12s.

* * The above works are all in Vocal Score, with a Separate Accompaniment for Organ or Pianoforte by VINCENT NOVELLO.

The "MESSIAH" is printed from the beautiful Pearl-Nonpareil Music Type, the other Works are printed from Engraved Plates, with music and words in bold characters.—These Works contain Vignette Title-pages, after Raffaele, engraved by William Humphrys.

Shortly will be published, in continuation of the above Works, Handel's "SAMSON," and "JEPHTHA."

All the movements can be had singly, as follows:—

A Collection of Sacred Music for the use of Schools. Edited by JAMES TILLEARD. Price, Eighteen-pence.

"The title best describes this useful volume. It is intended to be put into the hands of the learner, and is not for the teacher alone. The choice of tunes is extremely judicious. The words have been selected with more attention to intrinsic beauty than is usual. This collection should not only be introduced into every school, but into every family."—Critic.

"The selection is a good one. The book is very neatly printed and very commodious."—Atlas.

Music & Education.—By Dr. Mainzer.

"We have never read any work on music displaying a more elevated and philosophical view of the proper aims and objects of the art."—Educational Times, London, May 1.

"This work is of an enlightened and educated man of great experience, and will obtain a large circulation among the genuine lovers of music."—Church of England Journal, Mar. 30.

"An excellent and eloquent work, which deserves the most serious attention of every one engaged in education."—Classical Museum, April.

"We recommend the work as characterized not only by a profound knowledge of the theory and practice of music, but by a thoroughly rational, philosophical, and practical spirit. Dr. Mainzer, though a German, writes English with enviable eloquence and precision, while his pages teem with poetry and learning."—The Scotsman, March 22.

"In closing the volume, we feel that, during its perusal, we have been drawn into the vortex of its amiable enthusiasm. We hope that, as a treatise introductory to family music, it will become a family book."—Chambers' Journal, April 29.

Organist of St. Nicholas' Church, Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

FOLIO SCORE COPY, with an Accompaniment for the Organ, with Pedals, and an easy Arrangement for the Pianoforte.—Bound in Cloth. £1. 1s.

SMALL VOCAL SCORE (16mo.), for the use of Choirs and Congregations; in which are inserted Six Chapters on Vocal Rudiments with questions at the end of each, for the use of Schools and Classes; also a Table of Services for every Sunday throughout the year.—Neatly bound in Cloth. 3s.

It is really lamentable in a large congregation to hear how few persons make the attempt to sing the simple, yet sublime, melodies of our Psalm Tunes. This may be attributed in a great measure, if not wholly, to the non-provision of a Congregational Music Book, the want of which prevents many, who are desirous of singing, from doing so with that degree of confidence which should inspire every Church-goer.

At the request of the Clergy and Wardens of upwards of twenty Churches, the above Works have been published with a view of supplying this deficiency; and, in consequence of a large number of copies having been subscribed for, the Author is enabled to offer them to the public at a low price.
